

Centre for Strategic and International Studies

cordially invites you to attend

Discussion
on

The Rohingya Crisis and the Regional Implications

Speaker

Nehginpao Kipgen, PhD

Assistant Professor

Executive Director, Centre for Southeast Asian Studies (CSEAS)

Jindal School of International Affairs

O.P Jindal Global University

Monday, 29 January 2018

13:00–15:00

CSIS Meeting Room #542

Pakarti Centre Building, 5th Floor

Jl. Tanah Abang 3 No. 23-27

Jakarta 10160

RSVP

Telp: (021) 386-5532

E-mail: csis@csis.or.id

Dress: smart casual

Please bring the invitation

Short Bio:

Dr. Nehginpao Kipgen is an Assistant Professor and Executive Director of the Centre for Southeast Asian Studies, Jindal School of International Affairs. He is a Political Scientist whose concentration are in Comparative Politics and International Relations. His general research interests include democratization, global/world politics, human rights, ethnic conflict and identity politics, and foreign policy. His academic research focuses on South Asia and Southeast Asia, with specialization on Burma/Myanmar. He has presented papers and served as a discussant in several international academic conferences, including International Political Science Association (IPSA) and International Studies Association (ISA).

Since 2013, Kipgen has served as a “country expert” on Myanmar for Varieties of Democracy (V-Dem), a collaborative academic research project of the Department of Political Science, University of Gothenburg (Sweden), and the Kellogg Institute, University of Notre Dame (USA). Dr. Kipgen was awarded scholarships by Open Society Institute, New York; Prospect Burma, London; and the U.S. State Department for his Masters and Doctoral programs. He is also a recipient of International Writing Award from Earth Community Organization, Canada.

Dr. Kipgen has published single-authored books in Routledge (Taylor & Francis), Oxford University Press, and Ruby Press. His published books include Myanmar: A Political History, Democratisation of Myanmar, and Democracy Movement in Myanmar: Problems and Challenges.